

I Believe

I have $17.23 in my bank account
And I got a quarter tank of gas hoping this rice and beans will last
Till the week runs out

I got it good baby
I got it good baby
Yeah don't you worry I got all I need yeah
I got it good baby
Oh yeah I'm rich baby
Yeah don't you worry I got all I need

I've been heard and I've been seen
I believe oh I believe
I've been heard and I've been seen
I believe oh I believe

Five months seven days past the expiration date
On my Texas tabs
And I want to take my girl out hoping she's down to stare at clouds
Till the sun goes down

I got it good baby
I got it good baby
Yeah don't you worry I got all I need yeah
I got it good baby
Oh yeah I'm rich baby
Yeah don't you worry I got all I need

I have my friend and family around
Never felt so loved
My mom and dad support my dreams
I got my friends and they got me
Never felt so alive

(I've been heard and I've been seen
I believe oh I believe
I've been heard and I've been seen
I believe oh I believe)

(I got it good baby
I got it good baby
Yeah don't you worry I got all I need yeah
I got it good baby
Oh yeah I'm rich baby
Yeah don't you worry I got all I need)

I've been heard and I've been seen
I believe oh I believe
I've been heard and I've been seen
I believe oh I believe
